

Weld Community Foundation

Neutrality/Service Policy

The Weld Community Foundation recognizes that philanthropy takes many shapes and the Foundation wishes to fully encourage it. The Community Foundation works with generous community members who have a wide range of interests and who wish to support their community in a myriad of ways; therefore, in order to serve the broad community, the Weld Community Foundation does not support or oppose any specific ideology, religion, political issue, candidate, or ballot measure.